

CLAIM MEXICAN LIVED FOR MORE THAN 185 YEARS

AUSTIN, Texas.—A further substantiation of the report from Tuxpan, Mexico, of the death a few days ago at that place of Jose Calvario of an age lacking only 16 years of the two century mark was contained in a letter received here this week from Frank L. Watson, an American mining man at Colima, Mexico.

"I was at Tuxpan on the day Calvario died," he writes. "I had seen the old man walking about the streets of the town many times and he was often pointed out to me as being nearly two hundred years old. So interested were the state officials in the report of the great age of the man that a special commission was appointed to investigate the claim. The records of the parish church show that he was born in 1727. He left 7000 descendants. A Father at 150 Years

"He often told his friends in joking manner that he had the largest family of any man in the world. No one knows how many times he was married, but it is commonly reported that he married his last wife when he was past the age of 150 years and that they had several children.

"Calvario was an Aztec Indian. His rules of living were simple; in fact, he observed no set of rules. He ate whatever he liked and, of course, his poverty prevented him from faring very sumptuously. He was a moderate drinker of native liquors for 165 years, according to his own statement, made many times to friends, and his memory did not go back to the time when he began smoking the Mexican hand-made cigarette.

Was a Walking History
"This Methusalem of modern times was the walking historian for this part of Mexico, covering the period of his long life. He was born and lived within the shadow of Mount Colima volcano. He was a witness to the destruction of Tuxpan by an earthquake in 1806, when over 1000 people were killed.

"The man was of striking personal

NEW FUMIGATION HOUSE FOR MAUI

Plans of Experiment Station
Will Save Thousands for Ranchers

Plans to build a fumigating house on Maui by the United States agricultural experiment station to save the corn, wheat and other grain crops from the attacks of the weevil and other crop destroying insects are being drawn up and as soon as authority is received from Washington the construction will begin.

The exact location has not been decided upon, but it will be in the grain district of the Valley Island and is something that is badly needed. The weevil is one of the worst pests with which the ranchers have to contend in the growing of grain and sorghum crops, as in a very few weeks after the crops have been harvested it will be almost entirely lost unless fumigated. With the establishment of such a fumigation house new impetus will be given to ranching, and it is hoped that eventually enough grain may be grown here to supply the local demand.

The fumigation house, as planned, will be approximately 20x24 feet in size and thousands of bushels can be treated at one time. The walls will be constructed to allow a free circulation. The outside will be tightly fitted boards and inside with a space between a fine wire screen to hold the grain. The fumigating material is carbon bisulphide, which is placed in the roof, and as the gases are heavier than air slowly sink down through the grain, killing the weevils and most of the eggs. A second treatment is necessary to assure that all the eggs be destroyed.

In some places intense heat is used, but on Hawaii it has been found impractical and the fumigation system is now the accepted method here.

appearance. His frame was large and his eyes deep and piercing. During the later years of his life he gained a livelihood by doing odd jobs around the town."

HUGHES ASSAILS ADAMSON EIGHT-HOUR LAW
GREENSBAY, Wis., Sept. 20.—Renewing his attack on President Wilson and the Democratic administration for the enactment of the Adamson eight-hour measure, Republican Candidate Charles Evans Hughes declared here today that the pathway of "surrender to force" leads to but one end, and that is "civil war." Continuing, he referred to the administration's action as "unpardonable." He gave in detail his views on the tariff question.

BRITAIN EXPRESSES REGRET IN CEBU MATTER
WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 20.—Britain has formally expressed regret to the state department here for the action of the British destroyer in holding up and examining the Philippine steamer Cebu within the three-mile limit in Philippine waters.

It will be remembered the action was reported to the state department by Governor-General Harrison on September 12.

In its apology, the British government explains that dense fogs misled the commander of the warship, who evidently had lost his bearings, and that the invasion of neutral waters was unintentional.

STANDARD OIL WOULD LAY PIPE LINES

A. S. Prescott, sales manager of the Standard Oil Company, filed application with the harbor board this afternoon for permission to lay three 6-in. pipe lines on Kahu wharf, Hilo. An offer of 10 cents a ton (300 gallons) to the territory for oil delivered through them was made in the application. After some discussion the board moved to defer action on the communication.

CHANGE COMING IN LAND OFFICE FORCE

Miss Allene Bertelmann, stenographer in the land office, will leave that position on October 1, according to a statement by Commissioner B. G. Rivenburgh this afternoon when asked as to a rumor which has reached the Star-Bulletin.

Miss Bertelmann said this afternoon that she has not resigned and has received no notice of any release. "I have heard talk of some changes," she said, "but know nothing in regard to them."

Herbert Kingsley is slated for the position, it is believed. Rivenburgh says that no other changes are contemplated in the office force. Rumor also had it that Manley Hopkins was to succeed Walter Engle, who has gone on a vacation to the coast. This Rivenburgh denied emphatically.

END OF 'STRIKE' BELIEVED NEAR; OFFER IS MADE

Hawaiians who struck Monday. From 150 to 175 men are working at the Hyades this afternoon at Pier 16, and many Hawaiians were noticed standing around shortly before noon, as if they had been engaged to go to work.

Matson Has Closed Shop
Captain William M. Rind, commander of the Hyades, said the closed shop is effective in San Francisco, so far as the Matson line and other coastwise lines are concerned, and that the stevedores on the Matson docks are union men, getting 55 cents an hour for day labor, a gain of 5 cents an hour over the old scale; and receiving for overtime 82½ cents an hour, against 75 cents before the strike.

The coastwise lines yielded to the strikers. Whether the union men there will refuse to unload the Matsonia is a question. Part of her cargo was loaded here Sunday and Sunday night, the day before the strike was called, so it was not all loaded by non-union men. The Matsonia's sugar cargo goes to the Crockett refinery, where non-union men are employed, so there should be no trouble getting it discharged at Crockett.

BATHING GIRLS PAINT LEGS; DODGE AN EDICT

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J.—Bathing girls appeared here in a new style stockings, consisting of stripes of black paint, applied either laterally or longitudinally as the wearer wished, to achieve the appearance of slimness or plumpness.

The girls are perfectly satisfied with the contour of their legs, but the authorities have insisted that stockings must be worn on the beach.

The life guards confessed that they were deceived by the new ruse. Only one of the girls with painted hosiery ventured into the surf. Before she was knee deep in the surf the colors began to run. Rather than resemble an Easter egg, she ran too.

to become accustomed to and oblivious to defects.

"A salient defect of our local governments is the brevity of the tenure usually accorded to public officials. There is a change of administration, and hence a change of public policy, every two years, thus allowing a very limited continuity of effort from year to year.

Longer Terms Urged

"By the time even the most capable of executives become familiar with the needs and problems confronting them, the date is approaching when they must surrender the office to a successor, or lay aside the public work to enter into a campaign for reelection. It is to be hoped that the legislature will in time change the laws which cause such unsatisfactory administrative conditions.

"I trust that the viewpoint on local problems herein offered will receive due consideration, and hope that the deliberations of the convention will result in lasting benefit to the people of our territory."
